The brightest discovery made during this campaign turned up yesterday in the story which the Helena Journal tells to show that Mr. Carter went to Washington, alked with the secretary of the treasury and that, forthwith, the price of lead went flying toward higher figures. The fact is that Mr. Carter went to Washington to that Mr. Carier went to Washington to dicker about appointments and was completely upset in all his plans by Russell B. Harrison. He argued the lead question and the territory never got any satisfaction.

In hope of boosting Montana to victory, prominent eastern republicans have taken up this silver-lead question and the utmost has been done to influence Scretary Windom to make a favorable ruling. The Helena Journal knows these gentlemen by name. The Standard was the first newspaper to predict that this ruling would come, and it is perfectly well known by republican managers in Helena that it is promised, in case the republican situation becomes absolutely desperate as the campaign advances. Otherwise, the Helena Journal is well aware that any ruling by the secretary of the treasury will be withheld until congress meets in December.

From beginning to end the record of the republican party in Montana shows a conspiracy to keep the territory out of the tunion. The files of Mr. Russell B. Harrison's newspaper establish this fact.

Earl Frankenstein is the name of the Inc. Scart Paul without the park. These tickets include rail and staye transportation from Livingston and four and five days, respectively, board and lodging at the Park association's noon apear. The property is invested almost wholly in good mortgages.

Fortunately, however, no delay will result, for a republican congress is coming in and the territories can rely with confidence upon republican justice.

Delegate Carter took a similar view and worked with all his oily might to throw the matter over into the next congress. He was defeated by the work of Toole, Voorhees and Cox. Smash the conspirators at the polls this year.

THE COLD FACTS ABOUT CARTER

The men who were false to the intersts of Montana in the hour of need must receive a rebuke that they will never forget at the hands of the people of the territory this fall. We mean Mr. Thomas Henry Carter in particular. He was the head and front of the band of republican politicians who plotted and schemed to keep Montana out of the Union. His opposition, like all his work in politics, was of the undeground sort. CONDENSED RAILWAY TIME TABLE If there is one thing that Thomas Henry is not, it is an open foe.
